	Case study (Q.34 – Q.36)

	Based on the given information, answer the following questions.
	Manufacturing industries not only help in modernising agriculture, which forms the backbone of our economy, they also reduce the heavy dependence of people on agricultural income by providing them jobs in secondary and tertiary sectors. Industrial development is a precondition for eradication of unemployment and poverty from our country. This was the main philosophy behind public sector industries and joint sector ventures in India. It was also aimed at bringing down regional disparities by est	tablishing industries in tribal and backward areas. Export of manufactured goods expands	s trade and commerce, and brings in much needed foreign exchange. Countries that transfo	orm their raw materials into a wide variety of finished goods of higher value are prosperous. I	India's prosperity lies in increasing and diversifying its manufacturing industries as quic	kly as possible. Agriculture and industry are not exclusive of each other. They move han	d in hand. For instance, the agro-industries in India have given a major boost to agricultur	e by raising its productivity.

	Organised sector covers those enterprises or places of work where the terms of employment are regular and therefore, people have assured work. They are registered by the government and have to follow its rules and regulations which are given in various laws such as the Factories Act, Minimum Wages Act, Payment of Gratuity Act, Shops and Establishments Act etc. It is called organised because it has some formal processes and procedures. Some of these people may not be employed by anyone but may work on their own but they too have to register themselves with the government and follow the rules and regulations.
	Workers in the organised sector enjoy security of employment. They are expected to work only a fixed number of hours. If they work more, they have to be paid overtime by the employer. They also get several other benefits from the employers. What are these benefits?
	They get paid leave, payment during holidays, provident fund, gratuity etc. They are supposed to get medical benefits and, under the laws, the factory manager has to ensure

45.	You are a citizen of a country that has a democratic form of government. You want to ensure that the system of power-sharing in your country is effective and that no one branch of government has absolute power. Which of the following measures would best meet this goal?
	(a) All power is concentrated in the hands of the central government, which has the final say in all matters.
	(b) Power is divided between the central government and the states or provinces, with each level having its own sphere of influence.
	(c) Power is separated among the legislative, executive, and judicial branches, with each branch having its own responsibilities and powers.
	(d) Power is shared among different levels of government, such as the national, regional, and local
